

ROSKILDE CAMP, DENMARK DURING SUMMER 2018

Experience Denmark – through centuries up to to-day

Camp purpose: As a group member you will learn how the Vikings lived, sailed and played and through sports-, racing-, biking-, culture-, and leisure time activities get the understanding of how this life formed the Danish society of today.

Dates: From weekend July 7-8th to weekend July 21-22nd 2018

Group: Sizes: 20 participants, preferably equal number of boys and girls.

Age: Range: 16-18 years old.

Language: English

Accommodation: Family stay during weekends upon arrival and departure. During effective camp period stay at scouts cottage, school dormitory, tents or open air. Upon arrival you will be met in the airport by your Rotary host.

Closing date for application: 1 May 2018

Camp fee: 250E to be paid in advance (see instruction at camp home page)

Requirements: The standard requirements for Rotary short-term exchanges must be accepted. You arrange and pay your ticket to and from Copenhagen/Denmark, take insurance, bring pocket money.

Further information: The camp website www.roskildecamp.dk

Send application to: Jakob Volther chairman, short term exchange program
cm-st@rotary-yep.net

